New 5c Air Mail Stamp Brews Unhappy Mess For Cover Collectors

Specimens of the new 5c air mail stamp are at hand from Walter Stawuszewski of Philadelphia who sends a beautiful hand drawn cover, from the Pequabuck Stamp Co. of Bristol, Conn., who use one of the Farnam Engraved Covers, incidentally one of the best prepared covers from this House of Farnam that we have yet seen, also from F. A. Gorton of Crosswell, Michigan.

Each of these covers come to us with a 3c regular postage and a 5c of the new air mail stamp, thus fitting the proper 8c rate of today and in accord with suggestions we made in our paper when this stamp was announced for September 25th. Also in accord with later announcements of the P. O. Department that covers would be acceptable with a 3c regular postage plus a new 5c air mail stamp.

However in the same mail comes an irate letter from Lloyd R. Bowman of Akron, Ohio, who writes as follows:

"I read with pleasure, your announcement in the Sept. 19th issue that the Post Office Department had consented to concede to allow the new 5c airmail first day cover to be serviced with 8c postage. I prepared ten envelopes according to previous instructions with the exception that I affixed one 3c stamp to each envelope and remitted to cover the addition of one 5c Airmail stamp."

"Today I received the enclosed card along with my ten envelopes. It seems that your news item was in error. I confess I was not surprised by 'Hannegan's Hooligans'. They only reacted as usual. Anything to inconvenience the taxpayer, the dope. I was surprised to find that your publication would publish incorrect information. I guess you have changed sides in this game. Anyway, I shall remember this the next time I use your paper for anything but a dealer's listings."

We do not blame Mr. Bowman for being mad, because along with the above letter he sends us a card mailed out by the Department at Washington and dated September 22, which bears a marked statement to the effect that only covers with two copies of the 5c stamp will be accepted and the covers Mr. Bowman had sent, bearing 3c stamps with a remittance to cover the 5c stamps which were to be added, were returned to him.

Surely this is sufficient cause to make anyone mad, but Mr. Bowman is wrong in blaming us, the fault lies at the source of this mess and we hope that others have not suffered in the same manner.

In past instances, where errors of this nature have been made the Department has been very kind in rectifying such errors and it takes a lot of extra time and work which means employment of more people to correct these errors. If we had such a mess of covers returned to us we would remain all the material to the P. O. Department at Washington, call their attention to the facts and ask that they properly cancel and mail the covers back to us. This has been done in the past and we believe it will be done now for those who have been given incorrect information and service.

First 2-Way Stamp Auction Floor Sale

Cleveland's newest "Daily Auction" that closes out each Saturday afternoon with a Floor Sale, opened on Saturday afternoon, Sept., 7th in Room 914, Carnegie Hall, Cleveland, Ohio. The Sale started at 2:30 p. m. with a background of flowers, music and door prizes. Nelson P. LaGanke, owner of the STAMP-A-DE Co. that conducts these Sales as well as the HI-HAT Pictorial Auctions is shown in the picture. These Sales will continue each Saturday afternoon thruout the Winter and if you're stuck in Cleveland on Saturday afternoon, while on a business trip, drop in and watch the "wheels go 'round".

AUSTRALIAN MITCHELL STAMPS DELAYED

Due to the fact that the printing plant which is to produce the new Sir Thomas Mitchell stamps for Australia is also printing election ballots for Australian elections, the issue of these stamps will be delayed until October 14th instead of the earlier date which had previously been announced.

Our correspondent Mr. Betermann advises us that he has several hundred applications for first day covers from collectors up here and that all will be mailed when the stamps are issued.

Another Roosevelt Stamp For U. S.

The following is clipped from the column of James Waldo Fawcett in the Washington Sunday Star.

"A postage stamp showing a portrait of Franklin D. Roosevelt soon will be introduced into the regular series. It probably will be a 3-cent value and at first will be black, later purple."

This is good news for collectors if true and we might call attention to the fact that some time ago we addressed a letter to the Post-office Department and suggested that our present presidential series of stamps be brought up to date by adding Roosevelt on a $10.00 postage stamp. We fail to see where the stamp could be introduced into the present series without upsetting the entire plan of the series which pictures the presidents in their sequence in office on the various values.

Australia Planning Many New Stamps

The Australian Postmaster General has announced a competitive plan calling for new designs for the postage stamps of Australia. A prize of 50 pounds will be paid for each acceptable design. The judges are to be a special board, including among others, a noted artist, Dr. Daryl Lindsay, Director of the National Gallery of Victoria, also well known Philatelists including J. R. W. Purves and Mr. W. L. Russell. Mr. W. C. G. McCracken, General Manager of the Commonwealth Note Printing Company which produces stamps for Australia is also on the Board. Entries close October 1st and accepted designs will appear as stamps from time to time.

PRICED CATALOG OF GEORGE VI STAMPS

Mr. A. O. Crane, well known British Philatelic Student and Author has just issued the fourth edition of his well known catalogue of the Postage Stamps of George VI. This book is of over 100 pages and lists all of the stamps under the reign of George VI. Fully illustrated and priced. In addition to the listing of the stamps, the book is filled with notes, giving information of value and interest to any collector of these issues. The catalogue is published by Eric A. Paulsen, 67 Farm Road, Edgeware, Middlesex, England and is priced at 75c postpaid.

Prominent Philadelphia Dealer In Stamps Of Russia Takes Exception To Statements Concerning Reissue Of Many Russian Stamps

In our issue of September 12th, our lead story contained a heading which read, "Formerly Friendly American Philatelists Will No Longer Stomach the Russian Trash if Current Rumors Prove to be Authentic."

We now have a letter from Mr. Lester S. Glass, prominent dealer of Philadelphia who has specialized in the sale of Russian Postage stamps in the past year.

Mr. Glass takes exceptions to our statements and apparently considers the above statement as motivated by political bias.

We had no thought of politics when the above was written. We would make the same remarks about the United States Stamps if it were announced that the Post Office Department were to report all U. S. postage stamps so that collectors might buy them at face. Thus any attempt on the part of anyone to inject politics into this discussion is going beyond the point and trying to befog the issue.

We note near the end of the article by Mr. Glass which we will print in another part of this issue, that Mr. Glass explains that these reissued stamps are not to be reissued stamps as had been reported. We had this information some weeks ago as stated in our previous article, we made every effort through interested New York Dealers to learn the true facts and failed to get any information on the subject. It would seem queer that New York Dealers who are also heavy handlers of Russian stamps, could not get facts which Mr. Glass offers. The whole subject goes back to one we have noted so often, that in nine cases out of ten, news items in the daily newspapers, concerning stamps are usually so inaccurate that it would be best if none were published.

Some weeks after we first published the news story which was a clipping from Reuters, we noted the article by Mr. Kehr and naturally supposed that the story was confirmed and was fact, so we again printed the story and made our remarks, which were made solely from a stamp collectors standpoint and without any thought as to our likes or dislikes for Russia.

We only hope that the facts as stated by Mr. Glass are correct. We should be as sorry as any owner of a set of Russian stamps if their issue were to be debauched by a reprinting and sale at face value of past issues. We would not approve of such an act by any country and hope that the facts as stated by Mr. Glass are correct in which event they are of little or no interest to any stamp collector as stamp collectors collect stamps and not pictures of stamps, so will need have no interest in the Russian booklet when issued, unless the stamps pictured in the booklet are good for postal service in Russia in which event every collector of Russian stamps will feel it necessary to buy a book, just as all the suckers in the U. S. had to have a set of the Farleys, when this govern-

Warns Of Danger From Cellulose Mounts

Mr. A. E. R. Blomquist of South Euclid, Ohio, sends the clipping which we reprint below. This is from a newspaper column, but were not advised of the name of the paper.

Many collectors have followed the recent fad of putting their stamps in transparent mountings. These are supposed to protect the stamps against damage, but actually they are harmful. After years of observation, most of the more well known dealers declare that they are reluctant to buy collections of encased stamps. The chemical action of the transparent material causes many colors to run, particularly blues, and often causes the gum to melt. In addition these coverings sometime shrink, thus wrinkling the stamps.

A postage stamp will never become damaged if it is neatly hinged in an album with a good hinge. The idea of a stamp that has never been hinged having more value than a hinged copy is absurd. Collectors following that line of thought are liable to lose the entire value of their collection by using stamp mounts.

Our own experience with mounts of this type has proven unsatisfactory. Some time ago we purchased a set of Cayman Island stamps mounted on an album page and each stamp wrapped in a cellulose wrapper. The stamps had been wrapped too closely, no allowance for shrinkage of the cellulose wrapper, and as a result every stamp was badly warped or buckled. The greatest danger comes from close wrapping. Where both ends of a tube are open for air or where plenty allowance is made for contraction and expansion of the cellulose wrapping this feature is somewhat less apt to be disastrous.

TIN CAN MAIL ISLAND HAS VOLCANIC ERUPTION
A violent volcanic eruption was reported on the island of Niuafoou in the Tonga group on September 17th. This is the island from which the well known Tin Can Mail was picked up from passing boats and many collectors have covers from this point.

A volcanic eruption also occurred on this island in 1856 and in 1929.

THE PROBLEMS OF THE LOCAL STAMP CLUB

Our own experience over many years of interest in stamps has given us a wide experience in the matter of activities in local or city stamp clubs. We have always felt that there was much lacking in any meeting of any local club that we have ever attended. We have given much time to thought as to what could be done and what should be done to make a meeting of more interest to those who attend.

We feel that one of the greatest difficulties in solving the problems lies in the fact that an overwhelming percentage of those who come to such meetings are interested solely in United States Stamps. This being the fact, it would seem that most activities or programs of any local club, to be successful, would have to center around United States Stamps. It is the same problem that any publisher has and it takes some of them time to learn, that there is little general interest in articles about foreign issues and that the most desired material for publication is something concerning U. S. stamps and that preferably about the more modern issues for too few collectors of today get back into the early issues in their collecting activities.

We have a letter from a collector in St. Louis who became so discouraged with the proceedings of the one larger club there that, he, with several others likewise discouraged are planning a new club which they hope will eliminate features that seemed objectionable.

Their chief complaint with regard to the present club was that the club seemed to be filled with "vest pocket dealers" who were intent on selling someone else some stamps at every meeting or that the club devoted its entire evening to a business meeting plus an auction, after which the boys folded up and went home.

Business meetings are a necessary feature of any club, yet many members take little interest in them. We know of one club which solved this problem by appointing a board of directors who handled the business matters of the club in separate monthly meetings, thus eliminating the argument and such matters from the club meetings.

Each meeting a report of the actions of this board was read to the club and before the actions became final and binding on the club, the membership was given a chance to approve or disapprove the acts of the board. This eliminated a great amount of discussion and time on the floor and we believe the plan is still being used.

The great problem with any club is to find a program that will please as many members as possible and if anyone has such a program or knows how to develop such a program it would be of interest and value to many other clubs.

A great many of the larger clubs throughout the country are branches of one of the two larger National organizations. We have often believed that one of the duties of these larger societies should be the help of planning programs for their branch societies. We know that some effort along this line has been made but even this we feel much that could be done is yet undone.

We have visioned a National Society that might be big enough to supply its branches an illustrated lecture on some stamp subject. This could be done by lantern slides, prepared for the purpose or by a micro film display. It could also be done by preparing a set of display frames of single page size wherein might be placed pages from a collection or display, these frames being shipped to the various clubs, along with a prepared address describing the stamps and telling of the points of interest and the varieties. Such exhibits could be laid out on a table for examination by all members. There are many things that could be covered by such displays.

For our own part we have always found more interest in foreign stamps and believe that if more collectors would take an interest in some foreign issues that more interest could be developed. One of the finest ways to find an interest in foreign issues is through a topical collection of some nature. Topical collections, if properly developed can provide a wonderful evening of entertainment for anyone.

Another thing that should be encouraged at any stamp club meeting is the bringing to the club by individual members, any duplicate material that they have to dispose of. Without question, all collectors are constantly looking for stamps. Every member should bring to the club meeting, duplicate material, properly mounted and with his net price plainly marked, for the guidance of anyone else who cares to buy. Other than this collectors can also bring material for trade and in doing this should properly mount, number and catalog the material with a view to trading catalog value for catalog value in any certain class of stamps. It is not probable of course that anyone would offer to trade fine U. S. issues for foreign at catalog value, likewise mint British Colonies for used foreign at catalog value, but stamps of like quality might well be traded and if every member would participate in this plan it would provide much to interest the other members.

A practical program for a stamp club is a very difficult thing to arrange and if anyone can give us explanations of the successful programs that have met with the approval of their club membership we will gladly find room in our columns from time to time to explain and elaborate on such programs for the benefit of other clubs.

Mr. George W. Linn,
 LINN'S WEEKLY STAMP NEWS,
 Sidney, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Linn:

Discounting for the moment the uncalled-for prejudice and political bias of your Russia article on page one of Linn's September 12th issue, there still remains the fact that the article contains so many misstatements of fact and distortions of the truth that I cannot refrain from calling these to your attention.

It all goes to show that when quoting an "authority" in this case the venerable Ernest A. Kehr, it is a good idea to pick an authority who knows something about

A correspondent from New Bedford, Mass., wants to know just what I am selling, buying or giving away, and he rates me mightily for not being more explicit, or as he says . . . and I quote, "should everyone know who or what you are like, Pres. Truman or Herb Hoover" . . . unquote.

For the benefit of the gentleman from New England might state that my general idea of being in business is to sell postage stamps and at present my approvals are filled with British Colonies, singles and sets, Mint and used.

(This is a paid advertisement)

MEET UP WITH SOME NICE PEOPLE—There was a time when philately was less of a business and more of a hobby than it has grown to be today. There was a time when collecting stamps was a hobby for youngsters and ladies and gentlemen, catered to by ladies and gentlemen. It was a pleasure then, as it still can be today, to collect stamps.

Philately is going to go on for generations and generations. Collectors and dealers will come and go. We will slacken down our speed of living from the war time gait to which we became accustomed and in the near future we will live a more normal and settled life. (I hope).

Unfortunately, there has crept into philately an element that doesn't belong in a refined hobby, and stamp collecting IS a refined hobby. But none of us can control what creeps into a hobby, and so this cheap, scoundrelous, undeserving element is with us. There are all kinds of ways of making money. You can buy something for $1.00—just as your neighbor does—and sell it for $1.10 while your neighbor sells it for $1.50. Your neighbor is making a legitimate profit, one which enables him to maintain a decent place of business, a decent home and a decent family, because he has been brought up to believe that decency is above monetary worth. You can buy for $1 and sell for $1.10, make a short profit, grab all you can and take it on the lam when you have accumulated enough to provide for a comfortable existence for the rest of your life in some shabby community in some remote section of this world.

There was a time philately was conducted on the basis that you were a stamp collector, were interested in buying stamps from a lady or gentleman who sold them and who sold legitimate stamps. In turn, this lady or gentleman respected your business, took an interest in your collection, made a HABIT (and notice that I capitalized the word "habit") of seeing to it that you received all of the stamps of the nations you collected in the best available condition. In turn the old timers were willing to permit the dealer to make a liveable profit.

In making a liveable profit, the dealer spent his money to properly house, clothe and feed his family, and the landlord, tailor and butcher who bought stamps from him, also received, in return, the patronage of his stamp dealer.

Alas, however, it has become the rule to go bargain hunting every time a copy of a philatelic paper arrives. Open it up, quick scan the ads and see who is selling what at the least price—and send off for those stamps today. Philately has become different.

Little Johnny, aged 11, who has yet to learn what a piece of Kleenex is for, collects only plu-perfectly centered stamps. Johnny gets 65 in arithmetic, 70 in English, leaves his skates where his father trips on them in the hall, never helps his mom, but if his dealer fails to send the new 5c (retail price) Brazil in off-centered condition, Johnny raises a stink something terrible.

Joe Haskins from Plopengazizy, Iowa wears a suit that was new when Grover Cleveland was inaugurated. His one necktie shows stains from away back when you could GET steak, and his shoes were shined—the day they left the factory in 1918. But if Joe's dealer doesn't use Grade A Number One Plus glassine envelopes (and they must be the type that have never been touched by human hands) Joe threatens to cease buying from said dealer.

J. Hemingway Tissenfeather the III. (Not the 2nd—but the 3rd) takes monthly trips to New York where he attends the Stork Club, the 21 and many other bistros, always tipping the headwaiter for a choice table, where he sits sipping $20 a bottle champagne. He lavishes money on the washroom attendant, the hat check girl and the cab driver. J. Hem the Third returns to Birdbrain, Idaho and resumes stamp collecting. If his favorite dealer charges $3.50 for a set of stamps and some broken down jerk of a dealer who is saving up enough to go back and live only for his 4 o'clock Kaffee Hour sells them for $3.45, the wrath of the Tissenfeather family descends on the $3.50 dealer's head. He is immediately threatened with stoppage of business, and unless the price is adjusted from $3.50 to $3.45, the old Tissenfeather family retainers, O'Brien, O'Brien, O'Brien, *Moscowitz and O'Brien will start suit against him immediately.

Maybe you collect stamps that way. If you do, you are missing the biggest kick you can get out of stamp collecting. You should, of course, not be robbed when you buy stamps. On the other hand, penny pinching and nickel nursing are a brand of philately I'd rather have no truck with. The Case Bulletin is distributed by LADIES and GENTLEMEN dealers in postage stamps who are interested in doing business with LADIES and GENTLEMEN, and younger people whom we want to call miss and master. If you're the kind of collector who wants SERVICE, who wants a dealer who is interested in your collection, and who sells legitimate stamps at a legitimate price, what ever you do—don't do anything until you drop me a post card asking me to send your card to one of these dealers who will send you a copy of the Case Bulletin immediately. So immediately, if you will, drop me a penny post card to—

CELEBRATING ANNIVERSARY

Wholesale Inc., of Milwaukee is making merry at this time due to the fact that October 1st is the first anniversary of this live wire concern.

Their literature pictures a big birthday cake with a single candle, indicating one year of age.

Few new concerns have made the progress in a single year that has been made by this aggressive new company and their activities for the coming year are planned on even a bigger scale than in the past.

PRINTING...

No matter how beautiful the original, if the reproductions are poor, the entire project is then just a waste of time. Buyers of the U. S. A. Title Page can rest assured the reproductions are superlatively beautiful. As a matter of fact they would never go on sale, did they not pass Mr. Arthur Szyk rigid high standards and believe me The U. S. Page was quite a problem to the New York printing house that took on the job, something that took 8 months to solve before supremely satisfactory results were achieved.

Here's a letter from Mr. J. M. Quittenton of Seattle, Washington:

"I have just received my U. S. Title Page. As I make my living at the printing trade I can justly say that this page is the most beautiful work of art and color printing I have ever seen.

I am so impressed with this wonderful work that I am sending you eleven dollars for the second set of ten title pages to be issued as twenty different lovely pages I feel would be so much better than only just having the first ten."

The U. S. page is available separately at $1.10 each. The next 10 at $11.00. Despite the above letter I'm not at present accepting orders for the 10 after that, but I certainly will do my best to see that eventually there will be at least fifty different pages!

For the benefit of those who do not know how to remit to Canada will state that any way that is convenient will do. Postal notes, however, are no good here. Checks cost 18c to cash so add this on. Currency and silver is most convenient. U. S. mint commemoratives at face value are acceptable.

PHILIPPINE POSTSCRAPARIUM

By Pablo M. Esperidion

Quotes and Quotables as heard and reported in Manila stamp circles are perhaps worth mentioning as well as some plans and activities which local collectors and philatelic outfits have cooked or are cooking, as for instance—

Sans Rehabilitation

Stamp and coin collections lost during the Jap occupation as well as those during the last war operations in the liberation of the Philippines, will not be paid by the War Damage Commission, according to the Philippine Rehabilitation Act of 1946, enacted by the U. S. Congress and approved on April 30, 1946.

Postmasters

New York Postmaster, Albert Goldman's announcement in a Reuter dispatch of July 13, stating that "as of July 4 when the Philippine Islands became a separate and independent country, articles in the regular mails to the Philippine Islands are subject to the rates and conditions applicable to foreign countries generally—the rate for letters—will be 5 cents for the first ounce and 3 cents for each additional ounce; postcards, 3 cents each single card and 6 cents for a reply paid card," is not true with the Philippine Republic, according to Acting Director of Posts, Felipe Cuaderno. Postal rates and conditions between the Philippines and the United States will remain as usual as before the Philippine Independence, until due advice is received from the U. S. Post Office Department, Acting Director of Posts, declared.

Presidents

Judge Protacia Amonoy, a former prexy of the Philippine Philatelic Club, revealed before a recent meeting of the PPC that, according to an American officer in the intelligence section of General MacArthur's staff, on one of the stamps of the Jap occupation issues in the Philippines, there's a "microdot," a system of espionage practiced by Nazi spies in the last war, "the enemy's masterpiece espionage" exposed by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, in the April issue of the Reader's Digest—Don Jesus Cacho, prexy of the Spanish-speaking Association Filatelica de Filipinas, as guest speaker at the last meeting of the Philippine Philatelic Club, the Tagalamenglish outfit, pointed out that, "en el campo de la filatelia no hay enemigos sino todos son amigos" (in the field of philately there are no enemies but all friends)—And then, there's Dr. Gilbert S. Perez, prexy of the Philippine Philatelic Club, tho not a dealer himself, at the same meeting of the PPC, he advocated that, "dealers are indispensable in our hobby but they must live up to the ethics of the trade".. Don Felipe R. Hidalgo, the "Prince of Filipino Collectors," and prexy of the Philippine Numismatic and Antiquarian Society, got a big surprise the other day, because as an old subscriber to LINN'S WEEKLY STAMP NEWS, he received by mail recently, his copy of LINN'S with a dateline, "Columbus, Ohio, December 13, 1941." It was intact with the four-year old wrapper. Which goes to show that LINN'S must be delivered—Delivering enough, we find within the pages of subject issue, our old watchtower, the "Philippine Notes," the mother of our present column, "Philippine Postscraparium."

Congressman

Atty. Jose Roy, one of the present congressmen in the House of Representatives of the Philippine UNUSUAL U. S. OFFERS Most of this material emanates from a carefully formed, neat collection. While some material necessarily is described as merely "good" because of slight faults, the 19th century stamps are the best that can be bought except at high premiums and the few 20th century stamps are quite choice. I can think of nothing more interesting to offer Linn's readers this week. Check these against your wantlist and take advantage of the prices. Prompt action (or a supplemental list) will be necessary. Immediate refund if sold out.

the subject. What Kehr doesn't know about Russian philately would provide excellent material for a number of handbooks. This is evident by his numerous statements contradicting what has been written on Russian stamps by such people as Raymond Arthur Davis (a lengthy article in February 1946 Scott's Monthly Journal that completely disproves Kehr's misstatements); Theodore Lavroff in his numerous writings in Philatelic Journal of Great Britain; Commander D. S. Haverbeck in numerous journals in this country; Rimma Sklarevski, H. L. Aronson, Sir John Wilson, Professor Paul D. Krynnine, etc. Kehr wouldn't know about these, but any specialist student of the stamps of Russia could have put you straight; or an inquiry addressed to the Russian-American Philatelic Society of New York; or an inquiry addressed to myself, as I have been advertising Russia in your Journal ever since I started to advertise generally.

It's no good injecting political propaganda into philatelic writing, even if at the precise moment it seems to coincide with the current line of the State Department. Remember that line changes too; or world conditions change (during the last war when Russia was an ally, philatelic editors were so kind). While the philatelic editor owes it to his readers to publish true facts regardless of political considerations, he does not have to publish political considerations regardless of the facts.

A number of your readers have written me, saying they were much disturbed by your article; without any factual basis you had attempted to demolish their pet hobby (remember this would be true also if they collected triangles on cover or buttons of the Civil War period—because youse guys are always saying: Collect what you like). And you can't fool many people by hedging on the headlines: FORMERLY FRIENDLY AMERICAN PHILATELISTS ETC., ETC. IF CURRENT RUMORS PROVE TO BE AUTHENTIC.

Let us look at the statements from Kehr's article which you saw fit to amplify in your article:

(a) Kehr states that most of the issues of Russia of the past several years were made solely for sale to collectors and that few if any of them were ever on general sale in the Russian Post Offices. Mr. Davies writes in his article referred to above: "The country is huge, and the need for stamps is enormous. In addition, the government is very anxious to mark all events in the country's development philatelically because stamps are an excellent educational medium. When a new set marks a special event, this is part of the measures taken to popularize this event. For example, on Maxim Gorky's anniversary, special sets of his books were issued. (Mr. Kehr would say these were issued to milk book-collectors), meetings were held, his plays were performed. Stamps bearing his likeness also appeared. When the recent long sets of stamps marking Russian medals appeared, this was done to acquaint the population with them. I have come to the conclusion that the large number of selling possibilities." (The parentheses contain my comment).

(b) Your article states that stamps are cancelled-to-order so that the Russian Post Office could catch the collectors both going and coming. Mr. Davies gives three more sensible reasons why stamps are provided cancelled to order. Here are the reasons: "Owing to a shortage of paper during the war the Russians designed a special way of folding their letters, so that stamps pasted on the back could be used to hold them together. You open the letters by tearing the stamps. Reason number one for cancelling to order. Reason number two: Many Russian stamps have very poor gum. Therefore they are pasted down with horrible post office glue. This holds the stamps but at the same time mutilates them. Have you ever tried to soak off Russian stamps from parcel-post covers. Not one in ten comes off clean. Reason number three: In wartime especially, the route from Russia to America was long and devious. Mail bags were loaded and unloaded five times before they reached America. Mail matter became dusty and filthy. I sent more than 200 parcels of books home, all with nicely centered stamps specially cancelled in my presence. Not even thirty per cent were clean and useful when I soaked them off." Mr. Davies concludes: "Dear Mr. Collector, thank your lucky stars that the Russians

(c) Your article states that many of the people of Russia have never seen or heard of most of the almost 1000 stamps issued since 1923. It doesn't make sense that they would issue stamps to educate the population and then refrain from telling the people about it or letting them buy these issues.
The fact is that philately is a hobby for millions of Russians
They have their philatelic clubs and societies just as we do. They have something more: A collector-controlled society known as K.O.
G.I.S. which is charged with the responsibility of distributing the new issues to all cities and towns throughout the country, and making available at face-value all new issues of the Agency.
(d) The crowning misstatement is the baseless charge that the Soviet Agency is now going to reissue all the stamps of the past 25 years, make them available to one and all at face-value, and thus destroy in one fell swoop the market value of the existing Russian collections now in the hands of American collectors. The true facts are: In October 1946, there will be issued by the Agency an album containing reproductions of previous issues. This album will contain several sheets, each sheet having different colors. On each sheet will be printed several stamp issues. ALL STAMPS IN THIS ALBUM WILL HAVE DARK VIOLET COLOR. NOT A SINGLE STAMP WILL HAVE REAL COLOR. Below each stamp will be printed date of issue and a short annotation. At the end of the album, there will be a description of each set separately.

The text will be in Russian and French languages.
Thus it will be seen that the issuance of this album to commemorate 25 years of Soviet philately is being carefully planned so that its appearance should have no adverse effect on existing collections of the original issues.
Since the original color will not be duplicated in the album, anyone will be able to distinguish between the original issue and the reproduced illustrations in the album. Far from proving a callous disregard on the part of the Soviet Agency for the welfare of collectors, this plan for the proposed album shows a sincere effort to protect the interests of collectors of Russian stamps. Politically-motivated philatelic writers may continue to attack Soviet philately on imaginary grounds, but they will have little effect on collectors who believe in fairness and honesty when writing about stamps.

Yours very truly,
Lester S. Glass
PS—I could hardly hope that you would publish the above as a letter or article, so that your readers may have a true picture about the "rumors" on reprinting original issues. Nevertheless, there is nothing so disgusting as editorial ramblings based on ignorance or malice, so if I have put before you some new information for your own absorption, the writing of this letter is justified.

PHILIPPINE POSTSCRAPS

Republic, in his speech before the June meeting of the Philippine Philatelic Club in which he is a member and was guest speaker at the meeting, declared that to a large measure he won his election for congressman on account of being a stamp collector! Recognizing the psychological effect of stamp collecting, he applied it in politics and in the last April elections, it helped him score a landslide.

Prosecutor

Colonel Manuel Lim, JAGS, PA., Chief of the Prosecution Section, GHQ, SCAP, in his speech before the July meeting of the Philippine Philatelic Club in which he is a member and was guest speaker at the meeting, pointed out that "the hobby of stamp collecting would solve a lot of crimes among mankind if people would only dedicate themselves in this peaceful hobby instead of committing crimes, because philately creates a better understanding among nations and men and fosters the spirit of internationalism." While not exactly of philatelic character, Colonel Lim also spoke on several phases on the prosecution of war crimes, and said that "the United States Government has spent two million dollars as the cost of the trials of Yamashita and Homma alone, just to teach future conquerors that in a democratic world there's human justice."

Farewell, Commonwealth

The Philippine Commonwealth kissed goodbye to philately on July 3, without any philatelic fanfare; but some Manila collectors who you can count by your fingers, posted some last-day covers, among them was Mrs. Beatriz Ronquillo, a Manila philatelite and local "ghost writer."

Guys and Gals

A local dealer, who cornered the 1-peso on 4-pesos (Scott N7) during the occupation is now back in Manila town after a sojourn to the States where he unloaded the cornered adhesives. If you don't hear from Severino N. Luna, manager of the Luna Sons and Trading, just hold your horses. At this writing, SNL is engaged in a wrestling bout versus the tropical flu—Boys along Nassau Street will perhaps meet one of these days the stocky guy, Atty. Antonio Franco, manager of the Afran Stamp Co., who is leaving for the Stateside shortly. AF is gonna fly in one of those giant kites of the PAA—And then, there's blond Alice Mascunana Bruggmann (daughter of the late Walter Bruggmann, the "Father of Aerophilately in the Philippines"), who was scheduled to leave for the States too sometime last June. But like the plaudits of the world which are as fickle as a woman's whims, women can change their mind, and so Alice by her own right, changed her mind.

MATCHED PLATE NUMBER BLOCKS

If you are one of those individuals whose philatelic specialty is matching up recent plate number blocks in order to complete sets of all positions of all numbers, send your want list of your needs (with good references) to plate block headquarters. A very fine assortment is on hand of all stamps, and your list will take root in fertile ground. Please do not ask for 3c Pony, 5c China, or 3c Pan-American alone.

If you are just starting out, tangle this offer with your tweezers: the 5c Roosevelt stamp, every number in every position, for less than they would cost you bought individually, all fine mint: $3.00 per set, postpaid. Beat that if you can. (Gentle hint: save your time; don't try.)

CALIF. COLLECTORS CLUB REQUESTS INFORMATION

To supplement the 150 exhibition frames now being used by the California Collectors Club, plans are being formulated to have constructed an additional 500 frames.

In this respect, suggestions are asked for, from clubs—individuals or manufacturers as to the best method or methods to be used. While the committee favors alight weight metal frame glass size 24 X 30 inches, they would consider as well frames constructed of wood.

Many discussions have been held in the past as to the ideal method of making an exhibition frame, so here is your opportunity to put your idea to work.

Full recognition will be given for any plan used. Address your letters to: Frame Committee, California Collectors Club, Clarion Building, 1191 Market Street, San Francisco 3, California.

2c OR $300.00!

Can you tell the difference between Flat Plate and Rotary Press printed stamps? 99 out of 100 collectors can't. Even experts have difficulty classifying the various stamps printed by these two methods. Yet, of two identical appearing U. S. stamps, one a "Flat Plate" (#552) catalogs 2c, the other, a "Rotary" (#594) catalogs $300.00.

Now, you can be sure all your stamps are correctly classified, as we have devised a bicolored, pocket-size gauge, for distinguishing between these issues, and it's yours absolutely FREE. Postage appreciated.

A selection of our Popular general approvals will accompany the gauge, unless directed otherwise.

FREAK PRECANCEL

Perhaps we are stretching it a point to call the stamp a Precancel, but some people are want to call them that and so we do too for want of a better name. Mr. Charles Metz of Philadelphia submits a 1 1/2c Front View Harding Stamp evidently cancelled by some kind of a weekly newspaper or publication that does not have a publishers permit. In one line of Bold face eight or ten point type, between heavy lines is the following portion of an inscription "cible Banner!" Yes, the exclamation point is there. The inscription was printed after the stamp had been placed on the wrapper cover. Here then is a technical point that some collectors claim removes such stamps from the precancel class. Their claim is that such items are only "Printed Cancellations" and I am more than half-way inclined to agree with them. On the other side of the argument is the fact that although the procedure was not entirely orthodox, the intent and follow up was the same as Precancelling and therefore they are Precancels. Some old time classics come in for this type of criticism. This particular stamp, though, seems very interesting since it is out of the ordinary and more information would be welcome if some of the readers have happened to note a precancel looking stamp like the description above. It would be interesting to know what firm used them and from what city they were mailed. It is of course right away seen that "cible" is only part of a word and the last part at that. Below the heavy lines and not on the stamp is parts of four other words not discernable. In such printings the stamp is seldom placed in the same spot every time so that another copy might show up another part of the inscription. Let's dig through the old duplicates now and see if we can turn up more light on this interesting piece of philately.
